

We're looking for Artists' Hosts

Mi casa es su casa

We're looking for hosts in Hamburg-Bahrenfeld and Ottensen to welcome our international artist team into a cozy home away from home.

Do you have a guest room? Or could you even offer a whole apartment for a few days during the festival?

Your hospitality helps our artists feel grounded and comfortable — so they can teach, perform, and connect with ease.

Location Hamburg-Bahrenfeld & Ottensen

Dates Wednesday, 20 May 2026 – Tuesday, 26 May 2026

What We Offer

We provide a fair expense allowance for hosting, and our production team will make sure you're matched with suitable guests.

You'll also receive access to selected festival events and our heartfelt thanks — becoming part of the Body Rhythm family.

You're a great fit if you ...

- have a spare room or apartment available for a few days
- live in or near Hamburg-Bahrenfeld / Ottensen
- enjoy meeting creative people from around the world
- would like to support the festival community in a personal way

Interested?

Send us a short message telling us what kind of accommodation you can offer and for which dates.
